

THE LEISURE PAGE wishes you a very happy new year

At the leisure page, we believe in giving you helpful content. Also, we are all advanced degree-holders in astrology. So we thought we could use our knowledge to help you - our first item below predicts how the year ahead will be for you depending on the New Year resolutions you took. The rest of the page features a collection of lists. You can find more material on each item on our webpage: <http://gymkhana.iitb.ac.in/~insight/leisure.html>. Happy reading!

The Leisure Page Do-It-Yourself
Horrorscope

On the left is our version of the kundli. To use it, all you have to do is tick the shapes and note down the numbers corresponding to resolutions you would like to make for 2009. At the end, just use the key below to check what future has been decided for you by the numbers you have chosen.

- ➔ If you have ticked the shape marked 11, you will gain at least 20 kilos
- ➔ If you have ticked 9, you will forget all the English you know
- ➔ If you have ticked 6, you will die within a year
- ➔ If you have ticked 1, scope!
- ➔ If you have ticked 8, aukaat!

- ➔ If you have ticked 4, you will probably end up with an SPI of 6. If you have ticked 3, you can again expect an SPI of 6
- ➔ If you have ticked both 3 and 4, ouch!
- ➔ If you have ticked both 1 and 6, you will die hungry and thirsty.
- ➔ If you have ticked 6 and 9, you will definitely die hungry, alone and friendless
- ➔ If you have ticked 6 and 12, you will surely break up (even before dying) in two months or after 3 visits to the mess, whichever comes first
- ➔ If you have ticked both 6 and 11, you've made a wise choice, since 6 automatically implies 11. Of course, you will lose much more than ten kilos and (eventually) also your life, but that's OK, isn't it?

- ➔ If you have ticked 2 and 9, you've just wasted your time. Who did you think would be willing to lend you money anyway, after you became a regular reader of InsIghT?
- ➔ If you have ticked 9 and 12, please check your entry; this is clearly logically impossible
- ➔ If you ticked both 2 and 12, we wish you luck for your part-time fundraising career as a robber
- ➔ If you have ticked 3, 8 and 9, we recommend that you hire bodyguards to protect you from other IITians
- ➔ If you have ticked 5, 10 and 12, sorry rahega
